

UK

2.00 a m

USA

2.00 a m

A toddler has a temperature of 40 degrees

Parent takes child to nearest A&E

Child is triaged immediately and seen by a Dr within  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour

Medication to lower temperature given; child monitored for 2 hs.

Improvement -sent home with further medication; parent reassured, come back if necessary

Outcome: child home and recovers

Cost Monthly NI/taxation on income.

Parent (with basic private health insurance) takes child to nearest A&E

Hospital won't treat - not affiliated to her Health Ins.

Parent told to take child to correct hospital 70 miles away!

Contacts 2nd hospital- requests fund transfer- Refused.  $\frac{1}{2}$  hr

Is told to bring child to 2nd hospital- 70 miles away 2hrs

Ability to pay is investigated! 30mins

Child admitted and triaged. 15mins

Child starts fitting Outcome - death of child

Cost $200 dollars per month all of working life; $2000 excess to be paid as child admitted to hospital- despite no treatment

These scenarios are based on real cases .

To avoid this coming here contact.....